

Holiday Fashion Guide

Issue: 42

It's hard to believe that Halloween is already over and the holiday season is just around the corner! Along with the holidays comes lots of festive get-togethers and the opportunity to get dressed up! It's no fun to head out to a soiree during this time of year donning hum drum denim and a tee—instead show off your sparkly side and throw on a pretty little number tossed in sequins and glitz! Just remember though sparkle goes just so far... Don't overpower your look by putting on too much of the same thing... Mix up ultraglam with a basic for a more interesting and up-to-date take on holiday dressing! The following are some wardrobe ideas to mull over for whatever event you attend!

HOLIDAY CONCERT

GIRLS: Don't go like a frump—be fabulous! A sweet full short skirt perhaps done in lace or pretty satin is pretty and fem and will look cute with a simple black or white tee tucked in and a wide bow belt (or otherwise) worn at the natural waist. Don one of the season's HUGE statement necklaces or pretty sparkly earrings, a cocktail ring, brightly hued or a fun textured pair of tights and booties. (Don't forget to paint your pout too and add some highlighter to those cheekbones.)

GUYS: If you're going to a fancy concert hall ditch the denim FOR sure. A nice pair of black slacks is great, finished with a thin gauge wool sweater in a lovely buttercream or lemon layered over a patterned button down and tie. Don't be afraid of dressing up!

are they funky they are comfortable to the max! Since the skirt is such a style statement throw it on with a tiny turtleneck and keep shoes a rounded-toe with a platform. to-the-knee boots with a look like this as it will take the look from Holiday chic to questionable in a matter of seconds. Since the skirt will be doin' the talkin' skip glitzy jewels and instead do a stand out cocktail ring. Do hair up in a fluffy French twist or down in loose bouncy curls.

Ring AVOID

GUYS: While, I would avoid denim, if it's a funky friend's fete with a young crowd you may don your jeans if you please. Make your outfit memorable by layering. Try a chocolate brown cord sportcoat with a mustard sweater and amethyst pattern shirt beneath.

GRANDMA'S HOLIDAY DINNER

GIRLS: There will probably be a big meal involved, so try a onesie! Jumpsuits are a chic alternative to a dress this year so try one yourself. A jersey knit might be great for the buffet but a satin/velvet one will be more festive and fashion forward.

GUYS: Gram wants you comfy as you nosh. Don a cool cardigan sweater with some preppy khakis and finish with a plaid button down under it all and a pair of retro sneakers.
