

Fashionable Holiday Wish List

ISSUE: 25

You're never too old to make a Holiday Wish list or to enjoy tearing open a beautifully wrapped package and get a peak of it's (hopefully) glorious contents. Now's the time to start making that list and checking it twice. If you want to make sure you get exactly what you want do some quick internet searches and print out your desires and show those near and dear exactly what you are talking about... They may be able to oblige your wishes and find that same item — or something SUPER similar that better fits their budget but still brings a smile to your face.

While we all have our own whims and wishes here's a list of some items you may want to include on your must-have list. These items are all fashion RED-HOTS so be sure to make your requests early so that your faves aren't plucked from the shelves.

 One 60's-inspired sheath dress. Wear with thick tights and Mary-Janes for an authentic look.

 A pair of skinny black pants or leggings. Will look best worn with an over-sized tunic.

 A swing-y sweater made of fine-gauge knit. Would look fab with those skinny black pants.

 A cropped jacket in a chunky wool fabric with 3/4 sleeves. Will add edge to skirts and skinny pants.

 One high waisted short, full skirt in a pretty brocade paired with a girly mini sweater and cami.

 A pair of ankle booties. This item is sure to update any of your good old standbys. Black is best.

Now it's the boys turn! While I am certain most of you have gizmos and gadgets on your wish list - or maybe even a video game or two deep down inside you are yearning for some stellar fashion items as well... Or maybe there are just some plain old basics that you are dying to replace. You boys aren't always as good at communicating your wish list to avid listeners and generous family members and friends so in order to avoid another reindeer sweater disaster start early and like the ladies visually communicate your likes and dislikes—you may not get EXACTLY what you want but at least gram will have a better idea.

 One wool, tweed, or corduroy sports jacket to be worn with jeans or dressed up with khakis.

 One skinny tie. Wide ties are out. Nerdy prep is in. Wear with a white shirt and skinny jeans or black pants.

 One collegiate-style striped rugby shirt. The traditional college look is so in. Wear under the sport coat.

 A long wool scarf. Swaddle around your neck to stay extra toasty. A great finishing touch for the collegiate look.

 A chunky watch with a traditional leather or metal band. The bigger the better!

 A classic pair of chuck taylor-like tennis shoes or a traditional tie-up shoes to complete the collegiate look.

SOME HELPFUL VISUALS: YOU'LL BE STYLIN'!!!

MY VISUAL LIST: OOH, LA, LA!!!

Christmas
Wishes

Here's to hoping you get all you ever wished for, and best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year!