

* Our toddlers are literally crawling at the chance to star on some fun-spirited Little Tikes packaging! A handful of toddlers are in the process of getting booked for a number of various print assignments including: the LT Rescue Fire Truck and making, of all things: mud pies! You can see pre teens: Erin Tackett, Arielle Dull, Will Linson, Marlin Livingston, Jenna Green, Gunnar Bell, Robert Boone, Sara Street, Sami Hyde, John Jones, Carter Kendall-Luce, Abigail Hawkins, Alexis Brown, and Sebastian, looking like mini professionals and pseudo "bakers" and just having fun, while little ones like Donald Nolan, Tyson Chambers, Noah Chambers, Izzy Pucella, Carlee Garrett, Caitlin Cower take over the packaging of other various Little Tikes toys.

* Liz Vinning (Mount Vernon, Ohio) is also a Pro-Model and Talent Hollywood transplant who is enjoying life and the experience of acting in the movie and TV capital of the world to the absolute fullest. Liz's talents are hard to go unrecognized which is why many of the auditions she goes on conclude with grand success. In the last few months, Ms. Liz booked a voice-over gig for the animated web series titled: "Hot Businesswomen" and "My Life Plus Animals". Liz is represented by a top voice-over agency in Los Angeles that continues to provide her with terrific opportunities!

Liz

Way to go!
* We just had to share this fabulous tearsheet with you of the absolutely adorable Antonio Bonilla who took center stage (literally) at a shoot for the Hudson-based JoAnn Fabrics where he was lucky enough to don a super scary vampire-like costume. Others of our talent have donned cute outfits for JoAnn too including Isabella Maglis who looked darling as Snow White!

Bill

Bev

* COSE, an organization in Northeastern Ohio has enlisted the good looks and high talents of Gary Tisor, Bev Baum, Bill Walko, and Claude Jordan for an upcoming photo-shoot. Our quartet of talent are thrilled to be called upon for some more face time in front of the camera and can't wait to earn a nifty paycheck too.
* AW! Everyone look at the cutie pie on the card! In this case we're talking about John Jones who looks absolutely irresistible on a heart warming Mother's Day card! Our little guy's card will be available for purchase in the American Greetings aisle during the 2010 Mother's Day season and is sure to fly off the shelves! ADORABLE!

John

Brenton

* When you graduate from a prestigious film school called the New York School for Film and Television like Brenton Duplessie you just know that good things are to come! Brenton's strong background and talent has helped him to land a number of Independent Films including: "Circle of Trust" that will be submitted to film festivals in New York City - which looks terrific on his resume, plus he has a speaking role in a new movie titled: "Threading a Needle". The movie bit sure does appeal to Brenton, but it was experience on set for a national Mercedes Benz commercial that will be used for internal use in dealerships world wide, that truly drove him wild! Hat's off to the Graduate!

Crystal

* What's cooler than being in a cute disguise all day!? Crystal Baker knows just how cool it is as she will dress up like "Diego" at the entertaining Riverfront Kids Fest in Findlay, OH! Crystal is sure to be a hit among all the little ones there, signing autographs and even posing for some keepsake photos as well! Oh, wait, she is also earning a pretty penny for her efforts as well. Piece of cake!

Gary

Joan

Joan Altmayer and Gary Tisor are on FIRE these days - as they are booked frequently for lots of fun print and production work! Our bright faced and eager-to-go retirees who enjoy doing commercial work in their spare time just booked a Hot Pockets Webisode right in Cleveland! And While Joan did a fab job on set, Gary is super stoked to be booked for another full day of shooting as well because of his great performance on set the first time!! The BEST part?! The clients loved him SO much they even moved him up from a secondary to a primary role which equals 2 times the pay! We got such a kick out of the webisodes ourselves that we just had to share the link with you too. Log onto YouTube now to check our talent out and get a laugh in too!

MODEL/TALENT TALK

Highlights of just a few auditions and bookings at Pro-Model and Talent.

Pro-Model and Talent Mgmt. has so many models and talent appearing in feature films, television shows, magazines, catalogues, etc. we have listed just a few of the Pro-Model and Talent Mgmt. models and talent who are working successfully in many markets. We are thrilled to tell you about:

Kiri

* We just LOVE it when our local talent make it BIG in the national market! And of course we also enjoy spreading the word too... Take Kiri Stevens for instance originally from Cincinnati, Ohio who competed in a national convention represented by Pro-Model and Talent. This super talented and DRIVEN dude made the move out to LA a couple of years ago and has been steadily auditioning and working ever since. Over the past year alone Kiri has had a reoccurring role as "Jerry" on the USA network series titled: "The Edge Chronicles". He's also just wrapped the filming of two independent films as well, titled: "Writers Block" and "Waltz of the Doldrums". In-between working, Kiri auditions too! Most recently Kiri has auditioned for roles on shows such as: "Law and Order", "Cold Case", and "I Carly". Amazed by Kiri's success? Check out IMDB.com and search for "Kiri Stevens" to get a list of his accomplishments!

* Spiffing up the floors has never been so much fun for our lovely Janine Sarnowski! Why you ask? Janine was just booked for a full day of work for the Hurricane SpinMop 360! Janine says she had a blast whirling around set with the brand spanking' new cleaning tool, and never had so much fun cleaning house! Cleaning isn't the only thing Janine is known for though, it takes a special set of vocal cords and loads of personality to become an in-demand voice-over talent; Janine doesn't disappoint in either category and has thus booked a fun voice-over gig for Time Warner Cable!

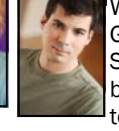

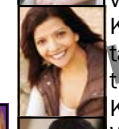

Janine

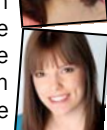

Andrea

* Good news!!! Cincinnati just opened it's very first Nordstrom store (Ok, that was good news for me alone...) but the even BETTER story is that Andrea Debevc was booked to be there for the Grand Opening! Andrea will be on hand for all the festivities acting as an informal model and will earn a hefty $700.00 for the day! Know what else is cool? Andrea doesn't have to worry about getting driving directions - the client was so pleased with her look, they choose to fly her in for the booking from Cleveland and back home again. And that's not the only client whizzing Andrea around the country! It's simply peachy that Andrea will be traveling to Atlanta for an upcoming 3 day fashion show too! Our gal who rules the runway will head down to the Atlanta Apparel Mart in Georgia where she'll stomp the catwalk for formalwear design company Henri's Cloud 9. Since Atlanta isn't a hop, skip, and a jump away Henri's, like Nordstrom, has also compensated Andrea an airline ticket as well so that she arrives in a timely fashion!

* Get ready to spot a slew of our uber-talented actors and actresses in action for a video production gig for Key Bank! Our crew of talent including: Christian Hayes, Lynn Koehler, Claude Jordan, William Smith, Kelly Goins and Harjinder Singh will act as helpful bank tellers in the upcoming television spot.

* Don't flip too quickly or you may miss our talent on the pages of Improvements! Cynthia Bradley, enjoyed participating in a recent fall shoot for the gadget-zine Improvements, while our client also booked Dan Turner, Juanita Penna, and Julie Powers who proudly shot for the winter catalog. No matter the season, our models are in style and in demand!

NORDSTROM

Barbizon of Akron/Pro-Model & Talent Mgmt. NEWS

* The journey began right here in Northeastern, Ohio for Katie Watkins who used to call Hudson home. Now, however Los Angeles is where she dwells and works! This talented lassie seems to make a lot of our newsletters as she auditions like crazy for fabulous roles on wildly popular sitcoms and movies. Recently for instance, Katie tried for a lead role in the new film "Twilight" - AWESOME! Katie also appears on many episodes of "Greek" and has nothing but kind words for Pro-Model and Talent who helped her get to where she is today! Katie says: "I want to say thank you, for giving me the opportunity to build my self-confidence and giving me the exposure I needed and to explore my craft more...All of this would not have been possible without PMTM." We look forward to seeing much more of this beautiful and talented young lady in the future.

* How much do you earn at your job in two days!?! Bet most of you can't say $1,700.00!!! Our wonderfully talented guy, Christian Hayes, earned just that after 2 fun days on set for some print work with the widely known company Troy-bilt. The client was pleased with how smoothly everything went while on set and Christian was BEYOND excited to have earned so much dough while doing a job that was SO MUCH FUN!

Christian

* Mike Lupton of Fairview Park, Ohio has truly found his niche in Hollywood and has been super busy in 2009. We are thrilled about this cutie's success and just love to brag about the roles he has picked up on MTV's: 13 Hearts and Parental Controls; in addition to an independent film called "Getting That Girl!" AND a brand spankin' new national Nike commercial! While all of Mike's accomplishments are truly mind-blowing we do have to mention, that thousands of actors competed for this ONE awesome role in the Nike commercial he had auditioned for, so needless to say, it's pretty cool Mike landed it! Swish!

Mike

* Home Improvement guru, Bob Vila shared the set with some of our talent recently for a Eden Pure air purifier gig. Dan Turner, Julie Powers, Meg Lyren, and Connor Christian were booked to shoot as a "family" with the widely known Vila who is promoting the fab-O qualities of the purifier! What's even sweeter yet is that our talent didn't travel far to shoot with a celeb either as the shoot took place right around the corner in Louisville, Ohio.

* Italy is home to romance, delicious food, incredible history and soon to be a temporary dwelling for model Marissa Irwin, of North Canton, Ohio who is listed with The Wilhelmina Agency in New York City. This globe trotting beauty will soon be leaving her home base, New York City to work in the city of eternal sunshine—LA. Then, she's jetting off to Europe to waltz her way through the ruins of ancient Italian cities throughout the bulk of October and November We can't wait to hear about all the bookings this beauty has snagged while in Los Angeles and eagerly anticipate what is to come while in Italy!

Marissa

* Our talent were at LeBron's "King for Kids" Bike-a-thon in Akron, but, you may not recognize them since they were dressed as Nickelodeon characters having lots of fun interacting with the kids! You can bet the likeable personalities of Amber Lee, Ashlie Kell, Megan Varga, Rys Weaver, Shimena Jasinto, and Chelsea Perkins made Brobee, Spongebob, and Dora the hits of the event and you can bet that our models also had a blast at the event since they were able to do a meet and greet with Nick Cannon!

Barbizon of Akron/Pro-Model & Talent Mgmt. NEWS

* Let's hear it for Matt Coffey of Uniontown, Ohio who is not only soaking up the sun in pretty Los Angeles but also working and auditioning a-plenty! Matt's great image and larger-than-life personality is what wins Casting Directors over time after time and in this instance it happened to be for the folks at Disney! So, sound the trumpets, because Matt is proudly shouting from the rooftops that he will be starring in a Disney XD NATIONAL commercial - and while Matt is stoked to just be in the commercial - he's even more proud of this accomplishment since he was up against HUNDREDS of other guys for the role!

Matt

* Can you imagine getting paid big bucks just for jumping on a trampoline for an afternoon?! Sounds like a dream, huh? Well Taylor Peters is being booked for a Dick's Sporting Goods shoot to do just that! You may have seen this cutie pie in the weekly circulars over the past few weeks too, sporting football gear! If not, take a look here - Looking good Taylor! Cutie pie Dan Jambor is also looking forward to shooting Dicks Sporting Goods where results of his efforts will be featured in the retailer's new magalog that features lots of gear for the sports enthusiasts every where. Dan himself will be showing off some great new UnderArmour wear! And just when you think you have heard it all (or seen all of our models for Dicks, think again!) Anna Dzurcvin has been added to the list of models too and you'll see her in the upcoming Holiday magalog along with Melissa Montan, Becky Chester, and Brandon Tylka.

Anna

* Beautiful Anna Dzurcvin, has won over the clients AGAIN! Recently, she booked a full day for a Circadianc video. The client's request was simple: "A beautiful face and a gal with exceptional on-camera skills" Anna fit the bill!

*Jane Morse is yet another of our talent who is in high demand, and who herself does a wee bit of traveling for the sake of her talent... At the client's expense of course! Jane Most recently, our very own Jane was made aware that she is in the running for a week-long gig out of state, with travel and accommodations paid for by client, for a series of training videos. It really does pay to know your stuff! AND, while we're waiting to hear what happens with that gig, we can report that Jane was recently booked for an assignment that had her getting a foot massage while on set. Rough life Jane!

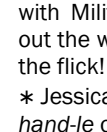

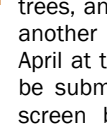

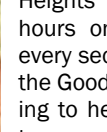

Jane

* If you see Jordyn Litman hanging around, make sure to get her autograph since this budding actress just filmed 2 scenes for the movie MYRA that was shot in Goodyear Heights Metropark! Jordyn spent 2 hours on set as an extra and loved every second of walking down a path at the Goodyear Heights Metropark, listening to her ipod, looking at birds in the trees, and even throwing a frisbee with another extra. The film will premier in April at the University of Akron and will be submitted to California for the big screen by Director Mike Campanizzi with Militia Hill Entertainment. Check out the website for more information on the flick! www.myrathemovie.com.

Jordyn

* Jessica Dyer had a great hand-le on a recent GoJo hand modeling project for a series of long-term care companies! Jessica was booked for the job due to her pretty hands but that's not all that impressed the client... Jess was a pure hit due to her professionalism and knowledge on set... And as a result is already getting booked for other projects.

Jessica

* It's rare to WANT to go to the hospital, but for Madeline Clendenin it was no problem as she was happy to be on set for Lutheran Hospitals of Cleveland. The gig was for a television spot that will be aired locally. We can't wait to see Madeline take over the small screen!

Madeline

Barbizon of Akron/Pro-Model & Talent Mgmt. NEWS

* All you dare devils out there who are perusing this fabulously informative newsletter will probably get a tad jealous after hearing about this fun print gig! Our very adventurous David Merrick, Kelly Holtz, Adam Hendrickson, and Kaitlyn Sandercock all spent the day tubing at Youghiogheny River Lake in Pittsburgh PA, all the while getting their pictures taken... Our team of super talent had sooo much fun, made sooo much money (they were paid in excess of $500) AND they can brag to family and friends that they'll be on the product packaging, and that they were able to play on the water for the day!

* Let's put our hands together for John "Vianney" Passio (Dennison, Ohio) who we can also proudly claim as a fabulous Pro-Model and Talent Alum! John stays busy out west in Hollywood where he is pursuing his life long dream of modeling and acting - we're stoked that he's been so darn successful too... Currently, you can check out the brooding John in a new SoapNet commercial. He's also been participating in several runway shows out in LA, and has done a number of magazine shoots! John has called LA home for less than a year and is already lighting the way to more fabulous opportunities. We'll keep you posted!

Vianney

* Who's the Hula gal?! Why 'tis Kelly Goins of course who looked every bit the part at a fun event in Cleveland, Ohio put on by a Cleveland-based insurance company that has been putting together Northeastern Ohio luaus for its customers every Friday for the past several months. The client wanted to really make it authentic and spice it up a bit, so they asked Kelly to be on hand to meet and greet people in traditional Hawaiian style, mingle with folks, have fun, and get paid really well!!! Sounds like a swingin' good time and a fun way to make a quick buck!

Kelly

* Wow, wee! Lookie who booked some print for Key Bank! It's Ray (Victor) Powell and Tiffany Allison who spent a few hours on set shooting for some upcoming ads for Key Bank in downtown Cleveland! Great job you two on bankin' up a lot of dough and doing a fab job too!

* What little gal doesn't dream about starring in a show on the CARTOON NETWORK?! We'd venture not many! Our cutie pie Kaci Krause, from Johnstown, Ohio, recently made the big move out west to Los Angeles and is one youngin' who can boast that she may have that chance since she just auditioned for a show on the wildly popular kids television network. This would be a phenomenal opportunity for dear Kaci, and we're all on pins and needles waiting to find out how she did!

Mo

* Sure, our promotional models are popular among event attendees simply since they have so much free stuff to give away but they also get a little lift themselves since they gain entry into some really awesome events! Mo Hamad for instance was just one of many promotional models booked for the US Open event for Olympus. Mo was star struck over the many famous tennis stars that he got to see up close and personal like VENUS WILLIAMS!

* Prancing down the runway never looked so effortless and fun! A handful of our talented models are booked for the upcoming Cleveland Woman's Show at the IX Center and will represent local retailers from the wide selection available at the Lodi Outlets. You can bet Jackie Faulk, Adam Hendrickson, Gabrielle Hoffman, Tiffany Allison, Alex Kastor will rule the catwalk and keep the guests chatting about all the fab ensembles on display during the show.
